Written by Sue Montgomery, Medical Author who Successfully Passed the CCRN Sue is a medical writer who was certified as a CCRN through the American Association of Critical Care Nurses for six years. She took and passed the CCRN twice, so knows what it takes to succeed. As a CCRN, she served as a staff nurse, clinical leader, preceptor and assistant nurse manager. During her time in critical care, she was additionally certified in pediatric chemotherapy, ACLS and as an ACLS instructor. Sue has worked at some of the top hospitals in the country, including Akron Childrens Hospital, Columbus Childrens Hospital (now Nationwide Childrens Hospital), Grant Medical Center and The Ohio State University Hospitals. In these settings, Sue gained extensive experience in adult surgical/trauma intensive care, neurosurgical intensive care, neonatal intensive care, pediatric intensive care and cardiothoracic intensive care. She has been an RN for over 28 years and received her Bachelor of Science degree in nursing from Kent State University.
