

Josep Camps & Olga Felip ...self (English) (scalae architecture + architects ebook collection 2)

This is the second book in the scalae architecture + architects international ebook collection. From their studio ARQUITECTURIA, Josep Camps and Olga Felip talk about the way they see themselves, their cities of origin (Girona and Tortosa), their understanding of the profession and how it relates to industry, their way of working using independent lines of research, and their experience at the Venice Biennale. As usual, original drawings, bibliographical references, and an invitation to join the conversation make up the rest of the issue. The cost of the ebook is due to specific Amazon features such as direct download to Kindle devices, the complete integration of social networking services, and DRM protection. A free version of the publication is available by signing up to archBIB.
