

This War Is the Passion

Originally published in 1941, this book by the renowned British mystic and spiritual writer Caryll Houselander is once again new as modern readers learn from Houselanders encouragement of her compatriots to view their experience of World War II through the lens of Christs passion. Writing with the intensity and immediacy of life in London during the blitz, Houselanders thought-provoking reflections continue to speak to believers today about the complex challenge they face to find Christ in the midst of the War on Terror. Writing in the tradition of Julian of Norwich, Catherine of Siena, and Teresa of Avila, Houselanders words resonate with Christians today regardless of their perspective on theology and the Church.
